

77.1 Transition from a Consumer Society to a Conserver Society

Whereas, Canadians have a responsibility in the global village; and, Whereas, It is necessary that Canadians as individuals, their governments, institutions and industries begin the transition from a Consumer Society, preoccupied with resource exploitation, to a Conserver Society; therefore,

RESOLVED, That the National Council of Women of Canada urge the Government of Canada to continue to provide information, the leadership necessary and financial resources to work toward better conservation of natural resources.
