

NCWC AGM and Conference
June 02 – 04, 2023
Park Town Hotel
Saskatoon Saskatchewan

Special Guests

- Martine Marandal, ICW President
- Ludovina Moriera, ICW Treasurer

Agenda Highlights

1. Business to date
2. Reports
3. Housing Forum
 - Keynote Speakers:
 - Marie-Jose Houle, Federal Housing Advocate,
 - Sarah Buhler, University of Saskatchewan Law Professor,
 - Brenda Mishak, University of Victoria Nursing Professor
 - Small group discussion, formulating national survey
4. Resolutions
5. Education Program
 - Keynote Speaker:
 - Jennifer Moore Rattray, Federal Ministerial Special Representative, whose mandate is to provide advice on the recommendation from the MMIWG Commission to create an Indigenous and Human Rights Ombudsman Press
 - Panel: Prince Albert Police Service Women's Commission
Their Mission Statement: "In partnership, we are the voices of change that will empower and influence our community and police service to balance trust"
 - Nora Vedress, Calvary United Church Minister, will introduce and moderate the panel
 - Liz Settee, Elder and Co-chair of the Commission
 - Erin Parenteau, Indigenous Resource Officer
 - Diane Wooden, Student Support Services, Prince Albert Roman Catholic School Division
 - Kathy Edwardson, Lead Investigator of the Historical Missing Persons and Unsolved Homicide Department
 - Jennifer Lenny, a 2Spirit Metis person
 - Tour of Wanuskewin Heritage Park (optional) www.wanuskewin.com
 - Transportation and admission paid
6. Special Events
 - Friday: dinner cruise of the South Saskatchewan on the Prairie Lily (optional)
 - Saturday: 130th Anniversary Cocktail Reception and Banquet
 - Speaker: Robert Blyth, Science Projects Manager, Canadian Light Source
 - Sunday: Installation of NCWC Board for 2023-2025
 - Speaker: Martine Marandal, President of the International Council of Women